

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA

Bonita Berg,
Plaintiff,

v.

ORDER
Civil No. 03-4642 (MJD/JSM)

United States of America et al.,

Defendants.

Albert T. Goins and Joanna L. Woolman, Goins & Wood, PC; David Y. Trevor, Gillian A. Brennan, and Timothy E. Branson, Dorsey & Whitney, LLP; Jerry W. Blackwell, Blackwell Igbanugo PA; Teresa J. Nelson, ACLU of Minnesota; and Gary K. Wood, for Plaintiff.

R. Joseph Sher, United States Department of Justice, and Patricia Cangemi, Assistant United States Attorney, for Defendants.

This matter is before the Court on Defendant's Appeal of Magistrate Judge Janie S. Mayeron's March 22, 2006 order. [Doc. No. 73.]

A district court must set aside any portion of a magistrate judge's order found to be "clearly erroneous or contrary to law." 28 U.S.C. § 636; D. Minn. LR 72.2(a). The Court has conducted a de novo review of the record and the Order and concludes that the Order is not clearly erroneous or contrary to law, and is therefore AFFIRMED.
